NO DESPATCHES.

A break in the telegraph line between Calgary and Banff leaves us without our telegraphic despatches.

LOCAL.

—Rev. J. Korchinsky, of Wasko, is in town.

—Miss B. Acher left on Friday to attend normal at Regina.

—J. A. Trimble began threshing barley today on his farm east of town.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Morris returned from their western excursion Friday.

—Geo. Durgand, teacher at Fort Saskatchewan, was in town on Saturday.

—J. W. Sher, M. L. A., leaves for Toronto, Montreal and Buffalo in the morning.

—Mrs. Philippe Roy leaves for the Landing tomorrow on a visit to Mrs. Leslie Wood.

—Thos. Houston is at Banff to take part in the celebration being held by the masonic order there.

—Rev. Father Leduc went to Calgary on Thursday to attend the funeral of the late Judge Rouleau.

—C. Muir, arrived on Friday with a party of United States farmers delegates from various parts of the central west.

—F. Lemoine, who had the contract for the pier of the Edmonton bridge, came in Friday. He leaves again for the south on Tuesday.

—Regina Leader: Major Sanders, of the N. W. M. P., Calgary, has been gazetted lieutenant-colonel as a reward for his bravery in South Africa.

—Regina Leader: Mr. A. J. Magurn has relinquished the editorship of the Manitoba Free Press, and Mr. John W. Dake, formerly of that paper, lately of the Montreal press, succeeds to the position.

—Anniversary services were held in the Methodist church, Strathcona, yesterday, Rev. Jas. Woodsworth, superintendent of Northwest missions, preaching. A tea meeting in connection with the anniversary will be held in Ross Hall this evening.

—A special meeting of Edmonton Camp Woodmen of the World will be held in Ross Hall Friday, Sept. 21, at 8 p. m. for election and installation of officers. All members and applicants are urged to be present at this meeting.

—Regina Leader: Miss Peters, of Regina, who so frequently visited Regina when he was taking the Menominee to form the Rosthern settlement, has now transferred his attentions to the C. & E. line, where he has been looking out locations for Menominites from Regina, Man., who intend moving to Alberta.

—Old Times: Released 778 army horses in the Territories. Of these 231 were purchased. Macleod, 217, 24 Calgary, 88 at High River, 61 at Cochrane, 42 at Pincher Creek, 44 at Medicine Hat, 18 at Lebberghs, 8 at Moose Jaw, 16 at Lebberghs, R. C., and 10 at Verdon, R. C. 377 were mounted infantry, 255 cavalry and 16 artillery.

—Fred of 's possibility of successful cultivation of fall wheat in Southern Alberta is shown by W. Sharman, who returned a few days ago from Pincher Creek with some of the finest samples of wheat it would be possible to procure in any country. The grain was grown in close proximity to the station at Pincher Creek. It was perfectly developed and quite ready to harvest.

—Free Press: The niece of Mrs. Ross, drowned on the steamer Isador, was not Miss Pearl McNeill, who had gone north with Mrs. Ross and family. It appears that Mrs. Ross was accompanied on her return trip from Dawson by Miss Louise McKay, another niece, daughter of a brother of Mrs. Ross, who resided at the Yukon capital. It was Miss McKay who perished.

—The announcement is made that all the trackmen will be taken back to work by the C. P. R. and that the men taken on during the strike will not be discharged as there is work enough for all. This shows with how small a force the company were endeavoring to keep their track in repair during the strike, notwithstanding their widely telegraphed statements that they had secured plenty of new men to take the place of the strikers.

—Free Press, Aug. 26: Land speculators from the States continue their invasion of Manitoba, numbers being registered at the various hotels, besides which many are touring the country, looking for snags. Messrs. Frank H. Perrin, C. M. Thornton, Chas. Tob, George Houston, Edwin Ruthvin and Rossing Christensen, all well-to-do Americans, are registered at the Imperial. They have just returned from a trip to rough the Red River valley, also to Edmonton and Prince Albert. They are today on a trip to Southern Manitoba. Messrs. Samuel White, I. E. Thompson, W. R. Black and Edward E. Sadler, Iowa farmers, are also registered at the Imperial. They leave today for the west on the Limited.

—Miss Howey, of Owen Sound, is visiting her brother W. R. Howey.

—Dr. Acher and Messrs. Norquay and J. J. Anderson are camping at Black Mud.

—D. Ross has presented the Bulletin with a cucumber 18 inches in length grown in his market garden.

—Right Rev. Bishop Tikhon, of the Greek-Orthodox church in America, came in from Leduc yesterday.

—A. Jaffray of the Imperial Bank, returned on Friday from that east where he had been spending his vacation.

—Necpawa Press: Chas. Congdon, who had been working at Calgary and Edmonton for the past fourteen months, returned to Necpawa on Friday.

—Winnipeg Telegram, Aug. 28: W. G. Douglas, flour and feed dealer, Princes street will receive his first car of new oats today. The car comes from Westbourne on the Manitoba and Northwestern railway. The product will be worth 36 cent per bushel in Winnipeg.

—To-day, Labor day, the town is deserted. The citizens have emigrated to the country and the ducks are having another day of battle, murder and sudden death.

—The Winnipeg Telegram reports that enquiries are being made for harvest hands, and that all the western harvest excursionists who wanted work have been placed.

—The Olds Oracle commenting on the statement that many intending settlers turned back this season unable to make locations says, this "does not prove" that the land was not here for them but that they were not here for the land.

—Olds Oracle, Aug. 30: The cool, cloudy, rainy weather of the past week has been the cause of considerable anxiety, but it is the general belief that having tided over this critical period, without frost, the beautiful warm weather, which we are now having, will continue for some time.

—Grading on the link of the Canadian Northern railway, connecting Gladstone and Beaver, Manitoba is completed. The distance was 16 miles and completed the Canadian Northern through line from Winnipeg to the end of the Dauphin line. The contractors with their outfits have gone to work on the branch from St. Charles to Carman in Southern Manitoba.

—Haying is about over and a large quantity has been secured in excellent condition. Nearly the whole is upland hay, as the sloughs were too full of water to allow of the hay in them being cut. As the sloughs dry up during the fall no doubt an additional quantity will be cut if the weather permits. The upland hay was very plentiful this season, it being possible to cut a good crop almost anywhere.

It is of difficult quality from the sloughs hay, but as good and in some cases better if well cured as it has been this season.

—A meeting of Edmonton Camp Woodmen of the World was held in Ross Hall last Friday evening with P. O. J. J. Berchank in the chair. On the ballot being taken forty-two applicants were declared eligible for membership. The impressive ceremony of introduction being the next order of business four of the applicants were escorted into the forest and instructed in the protection degree of woodcraft. After the ceremony a social time was indulged in by the members and visitors. Brother Patterson by his happy expression of the enthusiasm of his brother woodmen in the States being particularly eulogistic.

—Michael Tatarcuk, a Galician of Beaver lake, was at the police barracks Saturday with a tale of woe. Tatarcuk is the husband of Wasekan Tatarcuk, who skipped out from her home taking $800 that belonged to her husband. He has not seen her since. With all the excitement of his race he told his tale and in the middle of it broke down to weep. He was a pitiful looking figure; he had walked in from Beaver lake and was dusty and footsore. From an affection of the eyes he was losing his sight. In his collected moments he told his story to police interpreter Motjaska and Sergt. Aston. He lives at Beaver lake, he said. A few days ago his wife said she was going to town. He thought nothing of it. Then a man who had been to Edmonton came to his home and told him his wife was in town with his money and was going away. The money had been kept in a trunk and when he looked for it it was gone. It was all he had; he had brought it from Galicia with him, afterwards having it changed to Canadian currency. He started to town to find his wife but when he arrived he discovered that she had eluded the vigilance of the police and was gone some one knew whither. Tatarcuk blamed a countryman of his for alienating his wife's affections and attributed to him an active complicity in his erring spouse's latest exploit. The police are now looking for the woman or the money but so far without success.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, SEPT. 2, 1901.

"WESTWARD THE STAR OF EMPIRE."

Not the least important result of the taking of the Canadian census is the readjustment of provincial representation in the federal parliament which it involves. By a peculiar provision of the confederation act intended to protect the special interests of the province of Quebec, that province retains a fixed number of parliamentary representatives. The number is 65. Whether the population of Quebec increases or decreases the representation remains the same. The peculiarity is that although increase or decrease of its own population does not affect the representation of Quebec it is made to affect the representation of all the other provinces, irrespective of their own actual increase or decrease. The total population of Quebec is divided after each census by the fixed number of its parliamentary representation and the result is the number of people who in each of the other provinces are entitled to a representative. (At the census of 1891 Quebec had a population of 1,438,535. This number divided by 65 gave 22,131. Thus every 22,131 people in every other province were entitled to a parliamentary representative. But the population of Quebec was considerably greater in 1891 than it had been in 1881. Therefore the number of people to a constituency had increased. And unless the number of people in each of the other provinces had increased correspondingly they had more members under the census of 1881, than they were entitled to under the census of 1891. As a matter of fact in the readjustment of representation after the census of 1891, Prince Edward Island lost one member, Nova Scotia, one and New Brunswick two, not because those provinces had decreased in population, but because they had not increased as rapidly as Quebec. Ontario's representation remained the same figure, and Manitoba's was increased from four to seven. The Territories and British Columbia already had by act of admission to confederation more members than they were entitled to by representation. What took place in 1891 is repeated in 1901. Quebec shows a larger increase of population than either the Maritime provinces or Ontario and consequently they must lose representation. But all the western provinces and Territories show a larger increase than Quebec therefore they gain representation. Just how much they will gain depends on whether they are allowed representation for the fraction of population over the exact number resulting from the division of the total population by 24,938, the exact number who in Quebec will have a representative. It may be argued that the law is specific, and that not less than 24,938 people in any province may have a representative. But in that case the people comprising the fraction would be unrepresented, which is certainly not contemplated by the act of confederation. The question of whether the fraction should be represented or not is important in all the provinces, but particularly so in the West, where it must make the difference of four members one way or the other. Manitoba is entitled to 21-25 members, the Northwest to 5-20-25, British Columbia to 7-15-25, and the Yukon approximately 1-2-25. Each of the four political divisions west of Lake Superior has nearly, but not quite enough people for one more member, a difference in the parliamentary strength of the West equal to the total present representation of the Northwest Territories.

While all will agree that on every principle of justice the West is entitled to the representation of its several fractions of population it is unfortunate that the principle of giving representation to the fraction will be decided on the decrease of the eastern provinces rather than on the increase of the western ones. If the eastern provinces get the benefit of the fraction so will the western. But if they lose the fraction we can scarcely expect to gain it. On a similar calculation as already given in regard to the West, Ontario is entitled to 8-17-25 members, Nova Scotia to 18-25, New Brunswick to 13-25 and Prince Edward Island to 4-25. There is, however, this difference between the fractions in the East and in the West, while all the western fractions are over half, the Maritime province fractions are considerably under half. It would appear to be a fair compromise, and would suit the West, to allow representation to the fraction when it was over half and to refuse it when it was less. Most of the statements as to gain or loss of representation appearing in the eastern papers seem to have been made up on this principle, as Ontario is conceded to lose 5 members, Nova Scotia

2, New Brunswick 1, and Prince Edward Island 1, while Manitoba is conceded an increase of 3, the Territories of 2, and British Columbia 2. The Yukon is not given, but it will certainly be entitled to one representative and possibly to two. This would leave the house of commons with the same representation as at present, but would shift nine seats from east to west of Lake Superior. This effect of the peculiar method of readjustment provided by the confederation act was scarcely contemplated by the fathers of confederation.

It appears that while the Manitoba government was securing Eastern Canada for harvest, the Dominion government was doing the same thing in the Old Country. As a result 120 farm laborers from England and Scotland arrived in Winnipeg on Aug. 27th. Many more are known to be on the way. They are spoken of as desirable young men, and it is believed they will have no difficulty in securing harvest work. The scheme of inducing this class of immigrants is a good one if it is not overdone. The harvest season is short and the winter is long. If the men come understanding the conditions and prepared for them they are all right. But they cannot return home for the winter as easily and cheaply as the Eastern Canadian harvest excursions. The success achieved in attracting harvest hands from Eastern Canada and Britain shows what can be done in the way of immigration amongst our own people under favorable conditions by practical methods.

The Prince Albert Advocate, liberal and opposed to the Hudsonian government, has heard that Premier Haultain is to be appointed judge in the place of the late Judge Rouleau, A. L. Sifton, commissioner of public works, to become premier of the Territories.

YUKON MINING.

Dawson, Yukon, Aug. 4.—The big steel dredge brought down the Yukon from its former field of operation, on the Hootalinqua has been knocked down and taken to lower Bonanza and reassembled there. It was put into operation this week. The plant is the first of its kind in the camp, and is a success. It cost $250,000. It gathers earth from the creek beds and throws it into sluice boxes running over the hull of the dredge.

Water is very scarce on all the Klondike gold creeks. Many operators have been compelled to shut down indefinitely. Those who have been pumping plants can still supply. They pump the water into the sluice and use it over and over again. Only one or two sluice heads are running on many of the creeks.

Nearly all the claims on upper Sulphur are shut down for want of water. Many men on Eldorado and Bonanza have been discharged because of the shortage.

The owner of No. 9, Eureka, has located a new pay streak on his claim yielding $9 to $17 to the pan. The extent of the streak has not been learned. This is one of the biggest strikes yet made on the creek.

Four dollars to the ten-pan bucket has been struck on No. 34, Gold run. Judge Craig has handed down a decision establishing a procedure in water meters. It is to the effect that the claim owner is entitled to as much water flowing naturally through his ground as may be required in the working thereof, and that a water right diverting water and duly issuing from the office of the gold commissioner is not irrevocable when once issued.

THE OTHER SIDE.

Pictoria, Aug. 22.—Of the members of the old Government—executive council, only Schalkbucker and Reitz are in the field. Gen. Joubert is dead, Gen. Cronje is a prisoner, and Gen. Kock was killed. Out of 27 members of the first Volksraad thirteen are accounted for. Barnard, Labuschagne, and Malan have been killed. Sergeant Merritt, of the Bedfordshire regiment, was awarded a medal for killing Malan, who was sniping at Magaliesburg, in June. Merritt stalked him a few miles before he succeeded in shooting him. Tsen is dead. Wolmarans is a prisoner.

Eight members of the first Volksraad have surrendered. About half of the members of the second Volksraad are accounted for. All the heads of the state departments are accounted for except Smuts. Three of them are in Europe, two are prisoners, and fourteen have surrendered. The judges are all accounted for. Seventy-five per cent of the sub-heads of departments are accounted for.

COLLISION ON C. P. R.

Broadview, Aug. 26.—About 11 a. m. today a collision occurred at Whitehead between the mixed passenger and freight eastbound from Broadview and a freight westbound. It seems that the mixed, drawn by engine 356, engineer Shungieft, having the right of track, was running into the station. On the main track the westbound train, instead of taking the side track for some reason came in on the main line, although both trains had orders for an even meet. Owing to the curve near the mile mark, engineer Shungieft did not see his danger until too late. Both engines reversed engines and applied brakes and then with their firmness jumped to save their lives. The train going at about 4 miles an hour met and engine 353 crashed into 356 smashing in the whole front of 356 and throwing her own tender on the platform within two yards of the station door and was lifted off from the tracks. A car of coal on the mixed was thrown up on the tender and the next car crashed into a car of champagne on the freight near to the engine, which was piled up on and on top of a car of oil. The oil was much damaged, the prairie being covered, but, strange to say the champagne appears to have escaped damage. Supt. Miles, of the Roadmaster, Lillis and Locomotive Foreman Collins were soon on the spot with a wrecking crew, and had things in good shape in short order, with the disarranging of the train service in the least. The damage to the rolling stock and merchandise is $4,500.

CAUSE OF THE WRECK.

Vancouver, Aug. 21.—Many of the passengers of the ill-fated Islander declare that the Islander sank as the result of criminal negligence on the part of the captain and pilot; and all claim that there was ample time to have saved the entire human freight of the ill-fated ship. All, without an exception, agree that Capt. LeBlanc the pilot, was intoxicated when he came on board the Islander at Skagway and that he continued drinking throughout the night and was in a physical condition unfit for duty. Many claim—and perhaps the majority—that Capt. LeBlanc was also intoxicated, while a number are equally positive that he was perfectly sober, although, even the conservative ones admit that the captain had been drinking during the evening and shortly prior to the time of the accident; all claim that the officers of the ship apparently lost their heads and that the salmon passengers were repeatedly told there was no danger; even when the ship was actually sinking, and only one exception is made in favor of second steward Fowler, who assisted passengers to the last, and then gallantly met his own death; and the last of the chief causes of concern against the ship's officers is the charge that the Islander was being driven ahead at full speed through a dense fog and in a way, the waters of which were filled with floating ice.

Free Press: Messrs. Foley Bros. are expected to complete their contract for the portion of the Canadian Northern between Beaver Mills and Fort Frances inside of six weeks.

The Great Northern has completed plans for equipping from 75 to 150 miles of the Cascade division of the road with electric motors for operating trains. Power will be generated from the water falls on the Skykomish and other streams along the road.

Free Press: Workmen have commenced building the steel spans on the new Canadian Northern bridge across the Red river in the city. Five works have been erected and excellent progress to the first pier has already been made. By the middle of September it will be possible for trains to cross.

Twelve Million in Force.

The Great West Life Assurance Company has from its inception pursued a most conservative course with regard to its Reserve, realizing the importance of fully satisfying the interests of its policy-holders and making provision that affords undoubted security for carrying out all contracts entered into, and until two years ago was the only Canadian Company adopting the stricter standard. That this course was wisely directed is evidenced by the fact that the Canadian Government has, since last January, 1900, required from all Companies a higher standard of Reserve, thus endorsing the sound policy of the Great West Life.

In addition to creating an ample Reserve, there are other factors of vital importance to the policy-holders, namely, the safe and the remunerative investment of the funds that this Company can print to the fact that it does not carry one dollar's worth of property under closed management, is sufficient testimony to the manner in which its investments have been made. This successfully handling its funds, it has been able to earn a higher rate of interest than any other Company, justifying its claim to be the best Company for its policy-holders and proving it worthy of the recommendation of its friends.

The fact that the Great West Life Assurance Co. earns two per cent. more interest on its funds than any other Company doing business in Canada explains why it can, at the same time, charge a lower premium and return to its policy-holders a greater dividend than any of its competitors.

Plainsdealer, Aug. 30.

A serious accident befell Mr. J. V. Dunham on Monday last at Walter & Humbertstone's mill. He was engaged in work about the saws to which he was not accustomed. His clothing caught in the belt and he was drawn into violent contact with the machinery. As he fell one hand got into the saw and was badly cut. At the same time his head was struck by a splinter and a bad gash inflicted on the head. His side was badly bruised but it is hoped that none of the injuries will be permanent. His escape from a fatal death was miraculous.

The wisdom of postponement of Strathcona's fair now seems apparent. October 10th and 11th should see the finest exhibition of farm produce and stock ever witnessed in this fertile region.

The gasoline fire engine, hose reels and hose arrived this week for the Strathcona fire department and have been installed at the new fire hall.

On Wednesday last W. Morgan appeared before R. Ritchie, J. P., to answer to the charge of selling goods on Sunday. He was fined $5.00 and costs.

Invitations were received yesterday for the ratapayers to call upon Secretary-Crosscut Butlerford, who will be "at home" to these desirous of paying their taxes. A call before November 1st is earnestly requested. The rate is seventeen mills on the dollar.

Miss E. Templeton, a cousin of Mr. J. D. Foster, of Strathcona, returned this morning to her home at Smith's Falls, Ont., after an extended visit among friends in Strathcona and Edmonton where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sanderson.

The normal school at Regina opens on Sept. 3rd. Four students from the Strathcona schools expect to be in attendance, Miss Martin, Miss German, Miss Sutherland and Mr. R. B. Ritchie. They leave to-morrow for Regina.

Strathcona's new bells arrived this week, one for the fire hall and one for the new school building. The former weigh 900 pounds and the latter a little over 600 pounds. Both have a fine rich tone.

On Saturday night last Const. Jones entertained his first guest in Strathcona's new lock-up, a young man from the country, drunk and disorderly.

The C. P. R. grain sampler car went south on Wednesday to Wetaskiwin after receiving here some splendid samples.

Rev. F. Pompeit is leaving the Lutheran pastorate on the reserve east of Ellerslie.

Thos. Henderson & Co., of Rabbit Hills, received last week from the State a road grader which they are putting into operation on the highways of their district. Already a fine road has been made with the new machine from the White Mud crossing to Mr. Henderson's place, and this week it is operating on a bad stretch of the Calgary trail in the vicinity of Mr. Scamman's place.

PONOKA.

Herald, Aug. 30.

The whole of the Sharphead Indian reserve, No. 141 has now been sold, the last quarter being taken this week. With a very small exception this land has all been purchased by intending settlers who will occupy their lands inside of the next few months. We hear that is a strong probability of the Bob Tail reserve, which lies immediately to the northeast of town, being thrown open for purchase in the near future. There are some 25,000 acres of the finest of land in this reserve, and as the Indians have no title to it, and the only Indians living on it are about fifty rebel Indians, there is no obstacle in the way of the government dealing with these lands.

It is reported that a large Welsh colony will settle in the Hughes neighborhood. The Welshmen are a desirable class of citizens and no better could be encouraged.

That honey bees do well here has been clearly demonstrated by Irwin Perkins. He brought a hive of them from Minnesota, and says they are doing splendidly. The honey produced is of an exceptionally fine flavor.

Truman Bros. have surmounted all difficulties and have had their saw mill in active operation since Monday afternoon. This is highly gratifying to the people of Ponoka, as much of the proposed building has been delayed by having to wait for the mill to start.

A new cattle chute and enclosed stock yard have been built here by the C. P. R. this week. The yard is far too small to be consistent with the needs here.

WAR NEWS.

London, Aug. 27.—Lord Kitchener, in a despatch from Pretoria to-day, says:

"A convoy on its way from Kimberley to Griquatown was attacked near Roodikopje. The attack was driven off by Capt. Hum's escort of seventy-four Imperial Yeomanry, who lost nine men killed and had twenty-three men wounded. The convoy was brought in safely."

"Rawlinson caught eighteen Transvaalers after a forty-minute gallop in the open east of Edenburg."

DEATH OF JAMES PIERCE.

An aged and well known citizen of Edmonton passed away Friday night in the person of Mr. Jas. Pierce, who for a number of years has been a resident here. Mr. Pierce had been ill for several months and a number of weeks ago, his illness taking a more severe turn, he was taken to the public hospital where every possible attention and kindness was shown him. His only daughter, Mrs. H. H. McCully, of Lacombe, was sent for and was with him to the last as were also his two sons William and Abraham. Pierce's death occurred at six o'clock Friday evening at the hospital. The deceased was 76 years of age and was a native of Nova Scotia. With his sons and daughters he came to the west fifteen years ago and the greater part of that time he spent in Edmonton where, with his sons, he was interested in the manufacture and operation of saw mill and well boring machinery.

Up to his last illness he was bright and cheerful, his genial spirit and kindly heart making him the friend of all.

Three children only survive, namely, Mrs. McCully and Messrs. Wm. and Abraham Pierce.

The immediate cause of death was an affection of the heart.

The funeral took place yesterday to the Edmonton cemetery.

A short service was held in the Methodist church. Rev. D. G. McQueen preached the funeral sermon, Rev. W. Haggitt conducting the service. Interment was made in the Edmonton cemetery.

The pall-bearers were: D. R. Fraser, Al. Brown, Ed. Lyons, Jerry Watson, Geo. Sanderson, and K. A. McDonald.

HARVEST.

Wheat cutting has been in progress during the past week on Stony Plain, at Horse Hills and in other early localities. To-day it will be general throughout the district. It is reported that in some sections people were in too great a hurry and have cut their wheat so green that it is bound to return a shrunken sample. These cases, however, are not numerous. The danger of a scarcity of binder twine seems to be past. Several car loads arrived last week. So far nothing has occurred to lessen the estimates of a huge crop in this district made some time ago. The weather during the whole of August was all that could be desired. This brought forward rapidly the grain that had been delayed by the wet weather of July. This morning was cloudy and threatening rain, but seems likely to pass off.

—Plans are being prepared for another hotel for Edmonton. It is the intention of the proprietors, if arrangements are satisfactorily concluded as to a site, to erect their hotel on block X, on the brow of the hill, just south of Potter & McDougall's store, facing on McDougall street. The new building will be two storey frame, 36x63 feet, with brick foundation, and will be heated with hot air. The sight, if secured, will be a most picturesque one offering a magnificent view of the river. The proprietors will be H. Sigler and I. H. Pickard, who are well known in business circles here, the former in mercantile and the latter in the restaurant business. Tenders will be called for the erection of the new building immediately on the preliminary matters being arranged.

We defy any man to say differently.
